Love,

Who told family about the baby first?

Who cried when they found out?

Who's more nervous about labor/delivery?

Who sings better lullabies?

Who will do most of the diaper changes?

Who will be the main disciplinarian?

Who will baby resemble most?

Who wants more kids?

Who will spoil the baby the most?

Who will give the baby a nickname?

Who will change baby's first diaper?

Books for the Baby

A small request, and we hope it isn't hard
Please bring a book instead of a card.
By signing the book,
We will remember and share,
Your special gift, even when you're not there.

Old or new? Either will do,
We'll leave that decision up to you!
